Brisbane's charitable unite for black tie affair

Brisbane's finest fundraisers donned black tie when Multicap hosted its inaugural annual Charity Ball at Gianni Events @ Portside on Saturday 23 May.

Hosted by TV personality Mike Goldman, the event aimed to raise funds for Multicap, which supports local people with multiple disabilities.

Attendees included Multicap Patron, Her Excellency the Governor of Queensland, Penelope Wensley AO, Multicap Ambassador, Olympic diver Robert Newberry, and Olympic swimmer Nick Sprenger.

Multicap raffled a $12,995 diamond pendant designed by Hardy Brothers Jewellers.

Multicap CEO Joanne Jessop said the the passion and drive shown by Multicap's supporters was most inspirational and she thoroughly enjoyed celebrating the generous spirit present amongst all the organisation's guests in these difficult times.

Multicap is a non profit organisation that supports local people with complex and multiple disabilities, providing capabilities, and possibilities.
