Local community gives Multicap a boost

Leading Disability service provider, Multicap's Nudgee Day Service received an unexpected visit from State Member for Nudgee and Minister for Police, Corrective Services and Emergency Services, The Honorable Neil Roberts. The Minister presented a cheque for $500 on behalf of The Edinburgh Castle Hotel Community Charity Fund, after his recommendation that Multicap was a local community group which deserved the donation.

"Multicap do a fantastic job assisting people with multiple disabilities across the electorate and are deserving of our support," said the Minister.

The Minister presented the cheque at the Nudgee Day Service to Chief Executive Officer Joanne Jessop and Nudgee Day Service Coordinator Jill Binding

"Community support is vital to Multicap's services and their support makes a difference to the lives of Queenslanders living with multiple disabilities." Ms Binding said.

Nudgee day service provides support for twelve people living with multiple disabilities in the area. The service aims to provide them with community linking and participation skills, work skills, independent living skills, and recreation and leisure. The service plans on using the donation to purchase musical instruments to compliment their music therapy program.
