Multicap celebrates with inaugural dinner dance

Leading disability service provider Multicap will host a dance-'til-you-drop Dinner Dance on Saturday 13 February to celebrate another year supporting people with disabilities and their families.

The Multicap Dinner Dance will be a colourful, fun-filled evening with great company, fantastic food, and music, lucky prizes, and other surprises.

Multicap Chief Executive Officer Joanne Jessop, said the Dinner Dance would help increase awareness of people with multiple disabilities and the importance of truly inclusive events, and would also strengthen community links with associated supporters.

"Thanks to our founding partners Intouch the Multicap Dinner Dance will provide people with multiple disabilities an opportunity to go to a formal dance in a safe and positive environment without having to worry about excessive cost", Ms Jessop said.

"The night will be a colourful, fun filled event."
